

Audit Shows Parking Meters Have Brought In $281,857 And Delayed Tax Rate Boost

Gettysburg residents might well pat the parking meters as they pass them and murmur: "But for you our taxes would have gone up long before now."

The borough's annual audit, filed Monday evening with the council, showed the meters had secured $26,781.36 for the town's use during the last year.

A check of audits back through the years to 1945, when the meters were first placed, shows that the town had been able to double its expenditures without increasing taxes during those 12 years. In fact, taxes were lowered during the period by two mills. Most of the credit for keeping the town on an even keel financially during the period could be credited to the parking meters.

$22,943 From Dollar Club
So far the meters have brought $304,800.60 into the town's treasury. That amount includes $281,057.60 actually collected from the meters and $22,943 collected from persons who forgot the nickel for the meter and instead had to pay $1 to the burgess.

In 1945, when the meters first were installed, the town had expenditures of $51,170.03, and the income included $31,820.89 in taxes. In 1957 the town spent $110,930.24 and the taxes totaled $44,722.76—

ASK FIVE BOARDS OF SUPERVISORS TO TAKE ACTION

Five boards of township supervisors in Adams County have been asked by the Adams County Historical Society to "take under advisement" the matter of caring for neglected cemeteries within their borders under terms of a bill passed by the last state legislature.

President J. M. Sheads of the historical society reported to the organization at its February meeting Tuesday evening at the court house that as retiring chairman of the committee on neglected cemeteries he sent letters to the supervisors of Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Joy, Reading, Cumberland and Huntingdon Twp. No replies have yet been received.

At the last meeting of the historians early in January, new legislative acts placing responsibility for certain attention to neglected cemeteries upon the supervisors. Where townships fail to act, the law provides for petitions from residents or petitions to the court to get action.

The five townships written by Mr. Sheads include these old burial grounds: Old Low Dutch in Mt. Pleasant; Pine Bank in Mt. Joy; Round Hill in Reading; Black's in Cumberland Twp. and the old Episcopal Cemetery in Huntingdon Twp.

The Pine Bank, Round Hill and Episcopal Cemeteries have been cleared as projects by Junior Historians at the Gettysburg High School and a group of college students in the last few years.

"Pressure Too Much" And Hunted Kidnapers Gives Up

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP) — The grim four-day manhunt for kidnaper Carl E. Burton ended last night. He ran into police headquarters and surrendered because "the pressure was too much."

Two policemen chased him as he ran, hands in the air and a fully loaded revolver sticking in his belt.

It was a dramatic climax to one of this area's most intensive searches which began when Burton and Harold Davis, 33, kidnaped Missouri State Trooper William Little at Van Buren, Mo., Saturday night.

"Glad It's Over"

Burton said at the police station: "I'm glad it's over. The pressure was getting too much. I knew I couldn't get away. I had to quit running."

Police from four states converged on this western Kentucky area when the pair, holding Little hostage, smashed through roadblocks in Little's police cruiser.

THEATER TAX IN NOSE DIVE

Television has put a crimp in the town's treasury.

The 1957 borough audits over the last ten years shows that something has cut almost in half the town's income from its theater. Borough officials blame television.

High income from the theater tax was in 1947, when $7,947.13 was received from that source, according to the audit for that year.

The low was $3,874.42 received in 1957, according to the audit presented to borough council Monday night.

Nearly every year the theater tax has shown a decline; during the same years the number of television sets has increased in the borough.

In 1947 the town received $7,947.13 from its theater tax; 1948, $7,253.55; 1949, $6,526.69; 1950, $7,146.85; 1951, $6,585.97; 1952, $6,034.05; 1953, $6,154.01; 1954, $6,087.25; 1955, $5,379.58; 1956, $4,484.02 and 1957, $3,874.42.

G. F. EBERHART REMINISCES FOR HISTORIANS

Hotel business in Gettysburg a half century and more ago when the Eagle Hotel was in its heyday and the early years of the automobile and garage business in Gettysburg were the topics for more than an hour of reminiscing by George F. Eberhart at the February meeting of the Adams County Historical Society at the court house.

Mr. Eberhart, son of a hotelman here, was the first Gettysburg man to own an auto and built and operated Gettysburg's first garage more than a half century ago.

Gettysburg in the late 19th century with its growing tourist business, its limited hack service over the developing battlefield park, its livery businesses and its hotels of that day that sent colored porters to the railroad stations to lure customers to their own establishments were described by Mr. Eberhart.

Recalls 25th Anniversary

His father, Frank Eberhart, came to Gettysburg from near Baltimore in 1884 when George was a young boy and bought the Keystone Hotel, on the site of the present James Gettys Hotel on Chambersburg St. It had 14 rooms then but was enlarged and its name changed to City Hotel in 1897.

Mr. Eberhart recalled that during the 25th anniversary celebration of the battle in 1893, a bowling alley his father owned was filled with cots to accommodate the uniformed and helmeted Philadelphia brigade here for the occasion.

Recalling Gettysburg of that day, Mr. Eberhart said the present Hotel Gettysburg was then the McClellan House and next to it was the "opera house," the former Weaver building, where "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" and "East Lynne" were headlined attractions. He re- (Continued on Page 3)

The charge against Mrs. Via alleges Mrs. Seacrist was the acting agent in obtaining the money. (Continued on Page 3)

Commissioners Keep Tax Rate In Institution District Same

The Adams County commissioners this morning announced tentative setting of the institution district budget for 1958 at $201,877, and the retention of the present three-mill tax rate for institution district purposes.

The new budget is $69,884 higher than the $189,167 figure of last year, partially offset by the approximately $7,500 additional taxation that will come into the institution district as a result of the increase in assessments during the year. The remainder is to be derived largely from a large balance carried over from last year.

No Figures Given

Breakdown of the budget was not immediately released because of the possibility of some changes within the departmental amounts when the commissioners learn in another week the amount that will be needed to start renovation this year on changes at the county home. The present plan announced by the commissioners is to carry on portions of the work each year as money is available.

It was anticipated that the tentative budget — as broken down by departments — will be available next week. Present plan, according to Chief Clerk Creeby N. Hartzell, is to place the budget on public display March 1 so that final action on the approval of the budget can be made March 31.

The commissioners this morning also learned there is a possibility that the plan to divide Cumberland and Conewago Twp. into two election districts each may be accomplished before the May primary.

Possible For Primary

The county court Monday set May 10 as the date of the county election board — which is the county commissioners — to make its recommendations concerning the proposed change in the election districts.

With a check disclosing that the formal return by the election board could be made on the first day of the February term — which would be February 10, the court was asked this morning to permit such a (Continued on Page 2)

Can Abe Lincoln Save Duff Armstrong's Life?

Young Abe Lincoln is a highly respected lawyer around Beardstown, Ill., in the year 1858. His four terms in the state legislature, one term in the U. S. Congress, and his reputation as a likeable, humorous man stand him in good stead with the townspeople.

But—what about the jury that's trying his client, young impetuous Duff Armstrong for murder? They look very much as if their minds were already made up—even before the trial began. And the evidence only tends to confirm their prejudged opinions.

What they forget is that Abe Lincoln is a mighty resourceful fellow, and a crackerjack trial lawyer.

Navy's Second Satellite Ends In Fiery Explosion

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Navy's second Vanguard satellite rocket roared skyward today but ended just like the first—in a fiery explosion.

Sixty seconds after a beautiful takeoff at 2:33 a.m., the bullet-shaped Vanguard wobbled crazily, broke into two pieces and was destroyed by the test range safety officer.

If the flight had succeeded, the Navy would have put a tiny "moon" into orbit with the Army's Explorer, which was fired aloft Friday by the Jupiter-C missile.

But the Vanguard climbed only about 20,000 feet into a cold, starry sky before the safety officer, R. D. Stephens, pressed the button that blew it apart and sent it plunging toward the ocean in fiercely blazing fragments.

Lose First Dec. 6

So the Soviet Union, having launched two Sputniks, still holds a numerical lead. Sputnik I disappeared Jan. 4 but Sputnik II, carrying a dead dog, still whirled around the earth.

The first Vanguard rocket, fired here Dec. 6, struggled upward only four feet before it toppled over and was partly consumed in its own flames.

A fuel line leak, causing a loss of pressure in the combustion chamber, was blamed for that spectacular mishap, which damaged U.S. prestige abroad at a time when the Soviet Union had the only satellites in the skies.

Bessie E. (Whiteman) Dull, Gettysburg R. 5, from John W. Dull, Lemoyne, on grounds of desertion. The couple married at Gettysburg January 4, 1952.

The court signed an order turning $483.96 in the hands of the prothonotary over to the Commonwealth under the escheat acts if no claim is made by the rightful heirs of the amount within 30 days. The money is from the Goldsborough estate and was to have been given to Mrs. Elizabeth J. Beattie, Philadelphia. No trace of the heir or any of her heirs or assigns has been found for more than ten years.

Approval was given to the accounts of the Gettysburg National Bank in the estates of the late Dr. R. M. Dunkelberger of Gettysburg and his wife, Pearl P. Dunkelberger, both of whom were fatally injured in an auto accident, Dr. Dunkelberger and Mrs. Dunkelberger both died within the same day with Dr. Dunkelberger dying first. The amount for distribution in Dr. Dunkelberger's estate is $13,054.95 and in Mrs. Dunkelberger's estate, $23,505.98. The amount of the first estate is divided between two children, Dr. Harold A. Dunkelberger and Mrs. Dorothy D. Whitson. The amount of Mrs. Dunkelberger's estate is divided between four children, Dr. Dunkelberger and Mrs. Whitson and William P. and James P. change. "If the recommendations made to the court February 10, then notices could be placed at that time in the districts. The notices must be up ten days before a final order is given. If all works well, the final order could be handed down about February 21, and as a result it might be possible to make up the books and complete the work required in connection with the setting up of 'Conewago No. 1 and No. 2' and 'Cumberland No. 1 and No. 2' election districts prior to the May 29 primary." Attorney Charles W. Wolf said in outlining the plan to the commissioners this morning. "We can't say for sure that the division can be made in time for the May primary," he added.

URGES CIRCLE OF GAR LADIES HERE

The possibility of establishing a Gettysburg circle of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic during the convention of the GAR-affiliated orders here in June was discussed Monday evening at a meeting of the Salome Stewart Tent of the Daughters of Union Veterans held at the GAR rooms, E. Middle St.

Mrs. Ruth Hawk, New Kensington, department president of the Ladies of the GAR; Mrs. Clara E. Lewis, Pittsburgh, department president of the Auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans, and Mrs. Edith Jackson, Pittsburgh, personal aide to the department president of the auxiliary, were speakers at the DUV meeting. They noted that all of the GAR-affiliated organizations are represented in Gettysburg with the exception of the Ladies of the GAR. Requirements for members, descent from a Union Civil War soldier or sailor, are the same as those for the Daughters of Union Veterans, she said.

Mrs. Hawk said, "One of my hopes is to establish the 47th circle of the Ladies of the GAR at Gettysburg. Surely Gettysburg which has the most meaning of any community in the state, as far as the Civil War is concerned, should have representation in all of the GAR-affiliated organizations."

Members of the DUV promised to seek to secure at least ten women to make up the circle so that it can be instituted in connection with the convention.

The teachers placed their orders for supplies needed for the next three months, with Miss Phyllis Hawk, secretary. There was a discussion on whether or not to continue awarding of the weekly attendance banner in Sunday School; no decision was reached.

The Children's Division teachers and officers then met in charge of Mrs. Donald C. Feaser, divisional leader. It was decided that each department within the division will be in charge of a portion of the Easter program. The following were named to serve as a committee to purchase pansies to be given to the younger children of the Sunday School at Easter time: Mrs. Kenneth K. Kroh, chairman, Mrs. Robert H. Miller, Mrs. Edward B. Geiman and Mrs. Richard E. Miller. It was decided that each department will be in charge of serving coffee and cookies following the business on assigned months. The Junior Department served on Monday evening, and the Nursery Department will serve at the meeting on Monday, March 3, when the Children's Division officers and teachers will meet in department.

Navy's Second

from vantage points inside the test center shouted as the Vanguard began its arrow-true climb. But their cheers died in their throats when they saw the missile incline too sharply, break up and plunge back toward the moonlit Atlantic.

One huge ball of brilliant fire seemed for a moment to be spinning back in the general direction of the test center and an alarmed observer yelled: "Look out, it's coming our way!"

But the fireball disappeared as it neared the ground. At the same time, other sparkling fragments were seen plummeting into the ocean two to three miles offshore.

"Destroyed In Flight"
In an official announcement minutes later, the Air Force, which operates the test center, said the Vanguard was "successfully launched . . . but was destroyed in flight when it failed to maintain its programmed flight path."

Maj. Gen. Donald N. Yates, commander of the test center, said it may be several days before there can be a full explanation of what happened to the Vanguard.

Short though it was, the flight gave the Navy much valuable data, through telemetry, photography, radar and radio monitoring. Soon after the explosion, technicians were busy assembling this information, probing for the cause of the failure.

May Salvage Wreckage

The Air Force probably will be asked to try to salvage some of the rocket wreckage from the sea. The small Vanguard satellite may be floating on the water and sending out its beeping radio signals.

Weather apparently could not be blamed for the breakup of the rocket. Winds at 25,000 feet were blowing only 69 m.p.h.

The second Vanguard failure started immediate speculation on the future of the program. Officials associated with the project said it presumably would not be affected, since today's rocket was only a test vehicle.

G. F. EBERHART

called black-face entertainers that put on medicine shows in what is now Lincoln Square.

The old Washington House with a bar was across Carlisle St. from the Western Maryland Railroad station and the Globe Hotel, later the Hoffman House, stood where Sherman's store now is on York St. He identified that hotel as "Democratic" headquarters.

The Central Hotel, later the Wash-bash, was at the present site of the Wentz furniture store on Baltimore St. and the Battledore Hotel, which burned in 1889 and was rebuilt on the same site, stood in the point at Baltimore St. and Steinhew Ave.

A number of old pictures of both the Keystone and Eagle hotels were displayed by Mr. Eberhart and presented to the society. There were shots of the Eagle Hotel before it burned in December, 1894, which stands in Gettysburg annals as probably the town's biggest fire, and pictures of the hotel as it was rebuilt and later enlarged.

The Eagle was "in its glory" in the late '90's and early 1900's. Mr. Eberhart said it had 165 rooms, operated as many as six dining rooms and one day served over 1,900 meals when Knights Templar enroute to a Pittsburgh conclave stopped here for battlefield tours and food. In those days Eagle rates were $2 a day and dinners were 50 cents. Tuxedo-clad negroes staffed the dining rooms and he showed a menu card for typical dinner of 55 years ago that started with a choice of soups, broiled and roast meats, six vegetables, relishes, pastries and desserts.

List Famous Guests

Famous names who were hotel guests in those days were called by the speaker. They included a number of Pennsylvania governors from Tanner to Pennypacker, Gen. Sickles, Gen. David Gregg, Gen. O. O. Howard, Generals Butterfield, Gordon and Longstreet, Senator Knox, Postmaster General Wams-maker. "The first woman I ever saw smoke a cigarette was a Mrs. Dupont who came to the hotel in a limousine in 1901. She smoked in the lobby," he said.

West Point seniors were regular Gettysburg visitors from '01 until about 1914 and stayed at the Eagle. The Columbian Club and its "goose party" and firecrackers that were silenced by Burgess McCammon, Union League and Boston Club events here were other regular events at the Eagle, the speaker said.

Mr. Eberhart's vision of a future in the auto business led him to build his first garage at Chambersburg and Washington Sts. where the Har-nish carriage shop had stood. It was enlarged several times and then the present Epley garage was built by Mr. Eberhart in 1916. Mr. Eberhart was his first mechanic and Francis Smith, S. Washington St., was one of the first men he hired as a mechanic. His own first auto, bought in 1901, was a "sidewinding," one-cylinder Cadillac.

Reads Old Minutes

Dr. Frederick Tilberg, program chairman, introduced the program by reading entries from the minute book of the Eagle Hotel company, organized in 1856 at a meeting of Andrew Heintzelman, who was named president; E. G. Fahnestock, the secretary - treasurer; George Trone, David Kendeheart, Alexander Cobean, John Russelman, John L. Tate, H. D. Sweeney, William Culp and John Mickle. Minutes for sessions continue through 1862 and then there are lists of stockholders to whom dividends were paid and the list includes Thaddeus Stevens.

President J. M. Sheads presided at the meeting. Treasurer Fred G. Troxell reported $78 in dues in the last month.

Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, reporting accessions, displayed a 1858 Mason jar used by the Peach Orchard canning factory at the Sherry farm at about the time of the battle of Gettysburg. He also displayed an old vacuum cleaner made by the Armstrong Company and found recently in the court-house basement. Of a design not familiar to anyone present at the meeting, the machine included a bellows operated by scissor - like movement of long handles. There were also pictures of a Capt. and Mrs. Hunter and photos of the three martyred presidents, McKinley, Garfield and Lincoln.

Dr. Tilberg reported on plans to expand the community committee

Today's Talk

PEOPLE REMEMBERED

It is the silent spirit of people that makes them remembered. You meet them and leave them, but there is something about some people that you somehow can't forget. I recall seeing a woman in a Boston hotel many years ago. I was sitting in the lobby when she was wheeled in. I shall never forget her smile. It radiated and seemed to brighten the entire lobby. I did not learn her name. A mother, undoubtedly, and one who had suffered, but whose spirit you could not dismiss. Time and again the picture of that woman's joyous smile has come to me. How great is the influence of courage, when silently displayed!

It is inspiring to look upon the many memorials to people who have devoted their lives to the public good. Such people can never be honored too much. They are the remembered few. We do not forget people who are kindly, courteous, and pleasant. They always leave something of themselves behind. If we were like this, what a lift to life we might be!

Just a little while before closing, a plainly dressed woman went in to the old Wanamaker store in New York City. Clerks were busy getting their wraps and hurrying to close their day, but a young man noted the woman and rushed to serve her. He said that he had plenty of time. She made a few purchases and then asked the young man's name. Later a big order came to the store with the instructions that this clerk was to have complete charge of carrying out the order for a big castle in Scotland. The woman's name was Mrs. Andrew Carnegie. People glad to serve are never forgotten.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Life's Savings." Protected, 1955, by The George Matthews Adams Service.

Just Folks

HE LOVES HER

"If she were my wife," oft we say, "And treated me the self-same way, If she just moped around the place, And wore a long and gloomy face Whenever I was near, and had The trick of always feeling bad, A chronic headache, or a grouch That kept her stretched out on the couch,

I wouldn't be so meek and mild And treat her like a little child The way he does; well, I guess not; I'd soon let her just 'what is what."

"If she were my wife," oft we say, "You bet she wouldn't act that way."

And yet, and yet, I've heard a lot Of men tell how they would make it hot

For wives complaining every day Who are all right when they're away.

But most of them, I've later found, Submit to worse without a sound! A man's wife, somehow, gets away With tricks that are as plain as day To others; and I've noticed, too, No man believes his wife a shrew.

ARAB REPUBLIC MAY AFFECT U. S. IN MIDDLE EAST

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Union of Egypt and Syria into the United Arab Republic will make 1958 the most critical year of the past decade for the United States in the Middle East, Arab sources say.

Unless Washington takes some strong, affirmative action toward stabilizing the area, events of the next few months will effectively isolate most of the Arab East from the United States before the year is out, these sources said.

The union is bound to inflame nationalist hopes in other Arab areas. It is sure to touch off tremendous pressures against the governments of all other Arab East states most particularly those of Jordan, Iraq and Lebanon, in that order.

Opportunity Now
An opportunity exists for the United States now, Arab informants say. As much as anything else, the Syrian-Egyptian union action could be interpreted as a measure of self-protection against further Communist inroads.

The union appears to leave the impatient young officers of the ruling military clique in Syria high and dry. The implication now is that Egypt will be in charge of Syria's foreign affairs. The union thus seems an expression of last-grasp statesmanship by aging, ailing President Shukri Kuwaty. Up to now he had been powerless to slow down the headlong plunge of the military clique toward irreparable involvement with the Communist bloc.

Reds Riding High
The Communists in Syria, riding high because of the Soviet economic and military deals, have been against union. They preached federation, which would have left Syria's political structure intact.

Under the new arrangement they will have to go underground.

The union makes Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt more sure than ever the dominant Arab East figure. It is with him the United States must deal. What does he want?

No more, competent observers say, than to talk directly with Americans on Arab-American differences. Nasser, these sources insist, is looking first for a guarantee of Arab security, then for some common ground which might save the new Arab Union from sinking helplessly into the iron embrace of the Communists.

FANCY SKATER PLAYS HERSHEY

HERSHEY, Pa. — Twice winner of the coveted Richards Award, presented to the most artistic skater in national competition, Cathie Machado is back for her second starring season with Ice Capades of 1958, coming to Hershey Sports Arena, February 13 through 25.

A gold medal skater at the age of 15, Miss Machado swept into figure skating prominence in 1954, when she was crowned National Junior champion. She won the Richards Award in 1955 and 1956 and wound up her amateur skating days in a blaze of glory by competing in the 1956 World's Championship in Garmsch-Parkentkirchen, and the Winter Olympic Games at Cortina, Italy.

Cathie, who is a direct descendant of one of the first five families to settle southern California, a select group that includes the ancestors of movie and television actor Leo Carrillo, has also studied all types of dancing, as well as baton twirling. This training contributed much to her grace and confidence as an ice skater.

In the recent edition of Ice Capades Cathie first appears as the fiery Carmen in the profile presentation of Bizet's immortal opera, "Carmen." She is co-starred with Ronnie Robertson, another two-time winner of the Richards Award, and Bobby Specht, perennial Ice Capades favorite.

Again in the second half of the show she is teamed with Robertson and Specht in a modern number, "Salute to George Gershwin."

KING WINTER IN FULL CHARGE IN PENNSYLVANIA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

King Winter continued to hold uncomfortable court in Pennsylvania Tuesday, dispensing sub-freezing temperatures, snow and blustery winds.

The mercury dropped to 23 during Monday night in Gettysburg. Low temperatures were the rule throughout the state. Snow struck hardest in the western half—from the Allegheny Mountains to the Ohio line.

High winds added to the discomfort by drifting snow as deep as eight feet in some areas and making some secondary roads impassable.

Chattering crews and snow plows toiled Monday night to keep highways open. Even when cleared of snow, some roads remained slippery in spots.

Turnpike Is Icy
The Pennsylvania Turnpike was snow and ice-covered from the Gateway Interchange to the Allegheny Mountain Tunnel. The east portion of the toll road was reported dry.

No serious accidents were reported. School officials in the Somerset and Rockwood districts of Somerset County—which reported up to 10 inches of new snow—ordered classes suspended Tuesday. Pupils at Sparta High School in Crawford County also enjoyed an unscheduled holiday.

Deep Snow Elsewhere
Somerset County's fall was added to an already considerable base. Parts of Cambria, Bedford and Indiana counties also had up to six inches.

Four inches of fresh snow in the Johnstown area halted flights at the Johnstown-Cambria County Airport.

Eight inches fell in the Crawford County area around Meadville. Two inches were reported in Erie and McKean Counties and three at Franklin.

Northern counties in the western end of the state likewise experienced snow and blustery winds. The southern area generally escaped sizable accumulations. Pittsburgh had less than an inch, but it was enough to slow traffic considerably.

Snow flurries fell east of the Allegheny Mountains, but there was little accumulation.

Overnight low temperatures included Phillipsburg 16, Altoona 18, Bradford 19, Erie 23, Pittsburgh 19, Harrisburg 24.

TO COPE WITH CRIME IN N. Y. CITY SCHOOLS

NEW YORK — A mayor's committee of top city and school officials went to work at City Hall Monday night to draw up a program to cope with crime in the city's schools.

The group was appointed by Mayor Robert F. Wagner on Monday after he had met for two hours with school officials at Gracie Mansion, his official residence.

The calling of the meeting was Wagner's first direct intervention in a crisis which heightened in recent weeks as teen-age violence flared anew in Brooklyn schools. So far this week, the violence has subsided.

Heated Controversy
The violence touched off a heated controversy between the Board of Education and a Brooklyn grand jury over methods of fighting juvenile crime.

The board accused the jury of "harassing" school officials and making a threatening statement to George Goldfarb, a Brooklyn school principal who committed suicide last week. The jury foreman, A. George Golden, accused the board of telling "deliberate lies" and said the charges were an attempt to divert the jury from its course.

Goldfarb was principal at the John Marshall Junior High School where a 13-year-old white girl reported she was assaulted by a 15-year-old Negro boy. In another Brooklyn school a Negro boy assaulted a Negro girl last Tuesday night.

Goldfarb had blamed his school's troubles on a "transitory community." John Marshall's student body is 45 per cent Negro and 10 per cent Puerto Rican.

Both Charles and Carl appeared without counsel to plead to identical charges of premeditated murder and murder while in the commission of robbery. On conviction the jury sets the penalty at death in the electric chair or life imprisonment.

U. S. GRAND JURY INDICTS SEVEN IN BIG DOPE RING

CAMDEN, N. J. — Six men and one woman have been indicted by a Federal grand jury in connection with a million dollar dope ring uncovered last month by raids in Philadelphia, South Jersey and New York.

A total of 42 indictments were returned on Monday against: Peter Casella, 50, Ventnor, N. J.; James Santore, 43, Philadelphia; Nicholas Serrian, 43, owner of the Tumble Inn, near Vineland, N. J.; Frank Mail, 41, Philadelphia; James Simmons, 46, of the King Cole Motel, Williamstown, N. J.; John G. Marion, 30, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Marian D. Medley, 33, Philadelphia.

Another Arrest
The seven were arrested Jan. 23 in raids by federal narcotics agents, state and local police. They were indicted on charges involving sale and illegal possession of narcotics.

In Philadelphia, Frank Valle, 4, sought in connection with the dope ring, was arrested and arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Henry P. Carr on Monday. Carr set bail at $75,000 and ordered Valle held for a further hearing Thursday.

Valle was described as the chief "pusher" in the Philadelphia area.

U. S. Atty. Harold Wood told Carr that Valle sold federal agents $4,900 worth of heroin last April. Wood said Valle also assisted Santore in making a $3,700 sale.

Wants Highways' Boast Fulfilled

SMETHPORT, Pa. — State Rep. Albert W. Johnson, House Republican floor leader, says State Highways Secretary Lewis Stevens should "make good his election year" boast that the department will build 300 million dollars worth of roads in 1958.

Describing operation of the Highways Department as "messed up," the McKean County lawmaker said yesterday a check he made last week indicated there are no plans "to get the 300 million dollar road building program off the ground this year."

He said the U. S. Bureau of Roads has reported that "the department has only three sets of plans waiting for approval."

SAYS MILLIONS WILL GET HURT BY UNION PLAN

WASHINGTON — A Ford Motor Co. official declared Tuesday that "millions of little people will get hurt" if the new bargaining proposals of the United Auto Workers are adopted.

Theodore O. Yntema, a Ford vice president for financial matters, said the UAW proposals would cause a "massive cost-inflation" in the U. S. economy. He appeared before the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee.

He said further that UAW President Walter Reuther's proposal last August that car prices be cut $100 "would wipe out two companies in the industry and it would weaken Chrysler and Ford." The two companies to which he referred apparently are Studebaker-Packard and American Motors.

Cites Costs Increase
"If Mr. Reuther's wage and profit sharing proposals were adopted," Yntema said, "they would increase costs drastically in our industry and also across the country, as the wage pattern in automobiles was followed elsewhere."

"When Mr. Reuther says his labor proposals are not inflationary, he is talking nonsense. His basic minimum economic demands, which he did not explain to you, amount to some 40 cents an hour, or about 12 per cent of our hourly rates and a much higher percentage of wages generally."

Reuther appeared last week before the subcommittee in its investigation of auto prices. He devoted much of his testimony to pushing the profit sharing plan advanced for his union's 1958 bargaining negotiations with the auto companies.

Warriors Lose At Hershey 56-51; Scrubs Win 32-26; Middletown Here Friday

A third period sag when they were outscored 19-9 was fatal to the Gettysburg High cagers Tuesday evening when they lost at Hershey 56-51 in opening the second half race of the South Penn League. The Warriors came on strong in the final period but could not overtake their rivals and dropped their ninth game in 13 outings.

Hershey, employing a 2-3 one and double-teaming the Warrior scoring ace, Earl Little, limited him to but one shot in the first period and one point via a foul toss. Gettysburg found it difficult to work the ball through and trailed throughout most of the half.

Gettysburg held the lead twice in the first quarter via an opening foul by Sid Steiner and his jump shot to make it 3-2. Hershey, led by Price, Schiller and Moyer, moved to a 15-6 lead before Ken Keefer landed a lay-up and foul and Little hit a foul shot before the quarter ended with the Trojans on top 15-10.

Take Brief Lead
Hershey landed six straight points on a pair of fouls by Moyer and goals by Schiller and Fortna to make it 21-10 at the start of the second stanza. At that point the Forney-men spurred on a lay-up by Steiner, two by Tommy Crist, one by Sid Weikert, another by Crist, and two fouls by Little to put the Warriors on top 24-23 with 1:55 minutes remaining. Hershey spurred back for a 30-26 halftime lead as Little's goal was the only other Gettysburg tally in the remaining minutes.

Little converted a pair of fouls to open the second half scoring. Moyer and Little matched goals and Schiller's two-pointers was followed by Bob Furness's foul as the Trojans led 34-21. Nine straight points by Hershey made it 43-33 before Steiner sank a pair of fouls for Gettysburg. Going into the last period, Hershey held a commanding 49-35 advantage.

Little Gets Going
Little collected 12 of his 23 points in the final period to bring the Warriors back in contention. He landed three straight jump tosses to open the fourth round before Moyer sank a lay-up for Hershey. A jump toss by Keefer, tap-in by Little and a jump shot by the latter slashed the deficit to 51-47 with 3:13 minutes remaining. The pressing tactics of Keefer and Crist were big factors in the Warrior rally.

A lay-up by Schiller and foul by Groff was matched by Keefer's lay-up and Little's foul to make it 54-50 with 1:07 left. The verdict was sealed on Rippon's underneath goal with 25 seconds remaining. Little completing the scoring with a free toss.

Snap Losing Streak
Bob Nicholson's junior varsity snapped a six-game losing streak by taking the preliminary game 32-26 after rallying for 15 points in the final period. It was close throughout, Hershey leading 19-17 entering the final period. Don Coldsmith and Mike Small spear-headed the last quarter rally and wound up with 11 and 9 points, respectively. Middletown came here for another league engagement Friday evening.

SUDDEN DEATH FOR DELONE AT SCOTLAND 53-51

A long set shot by 5'9" Clair Trexler gave the Scotland Cadets a thrilling 53-51 win over Delone Catholic in a double overtime, sudden death basketball game that kept the fans cheering from start to finish on the winners' court Tuesday night.

Although it was a low scoring game none of the thrills and excitement were left out. With Delone trailing 37-36 going into the final frame, Paul Gebhart connected on a jump shot but Trexler came back with one of his deadly set shots midway between the half court line and the foul circle. Tom Staub and Bob Baker exchanged jump shots from the circle while John Gastley and Bob Smoker matched driving lay-ups. Tom Staub added a pair of charity tosses as Scotland called time out at this stage of the game with Delone leading 44-43 and 2:45 minutes remaining.

It was Clair Trexler again hitting on his set shot with 1:11 to go. Going right down to the wire, with 36 seconds left in the game Trexler dunked a foul make it 46-44. Scotland out in front. Delone had the ball and with three seconds remaining, Jim Keffer, 6'2" Junior forward, took his time and out loose with a long set that ripped the cords on the buzzer knotting the count at 46-46 and sending the game into overtime.

Gebhart Ties Game Again
In the fifth period it was Milt Dickerson, Cadet center, who started the ball rolling with a rebound from the side. Delone retaliated by knotting the count again with a lay-up by Tom Staub and Gebhart's foul shot moved the Squires out in front by one point. With another time out called and 45 seconds remaining in the frame, Trexler tossed up a free throw while Berney Dickerson put the Cadets out in front 51-49 with six seconds remaining. Paul Gebhart then sent the fans jumping to their feet with an easy game-tying jump shot.

With the score now tied at 51-51, the officials called for the sudden death overtime. Delone had possession of the ball first with Tom Smith trying a shot and missing.

Clair Trexler then brought the ball across the half court marker, studied the basket and cut loose with a long set that ended a top notch thriller.

Delone got off to an 11-9 start in the first period with all of the starting five chipping in on the scoring while Milt and brother, Berney Dickerson led the Cadet attack.

Cadets Hold Lead
With Milt Dickerson and Clair Trexler controlling from both the outside and under the boards, the Cadets soon flashed back with a 15-24 lead at half time. In the third quarter Delone never regained their one-point lead but managed to stay at least one or two points behind. Tom Staub added a thriller in the third period when he landed a jump shot on the buzzer to make it 37-36, Scotland out in front after three frames.

Clair Trexler, the hard working Cadet in all six periods, was high man on the scoring list for Scotland with 16 points, followed by Milt Dickerson's 14. Jim Keffer topped the Delone scoring with 13 counters while John Gastley tossed in nine, for second place.

Delone Scrubs Bow
Trailing throughout the entire game, the Delone reserves lost a 32-23 encounter to the Scotland reserves in the preliminary contest. Terry Baysinger and Joe Talarico paced the winners with 12 and 6 points, while Earl Laughman landed nine for the Squires followed by Bill Solomon's 6.

On Thursday Delone will open their second half Central Penn Catholic conference play by entertaining the first half winners, Bishop McDevitt.

NONE TO JOIN HALL OF FAME
BOSTON (AP)—No former major league player will join baseball's immortals in the Hall of Fame this year for the first time since 1950.

Secretary-Treasurer Hy Hurwitz announced that the Baseball Writers Assn. of America failed to give any former player 75 percent of the total vote necessary for election.

Nobody even came close. With 266 ballots cast by 10-year members of the association, 199 votes was the minimum for election.

Max Carey, a base-stealing star for Pittsburgh and Brooklyn from 1910 through 1929, topped the list with 135 votes. He was followed by Ed Roush, former New York Giant and Cincinnati outfielder, who polled 112 votes.

Carey, the National League's answer to Ty Cobb in the American League, led his circuit 10 times in base stealing while committing 738 thefts during his career.

Dodgers Deviate
In this day and age when most major league teams have followed the pattern of the New York Yankees, by having rookie schools before regular spring training, the Dodgers have their own version. Their minor league players report after the Dodger varsity leaves the Vero Beach barracks.

Rookie camps in Florida will find young Yankees at St. Petersburg, Boston Red Sox hopefuls at Sarasota and Detroit Tiger youngsters at Lakeland.

At most major league camps, pitchers and catchers will report earlier than the universal March 1 date. Dodger battermen are due to turn up on Feb. 20 with regulars reporting Feb. 28.

Washington's Senators, who train at Orlando, have battermen down for Feb. 18, the earliest date ever for a run for the top in the tough Atlantic Coast Conference basketball race.

The 73-57 victory over Clemson last night was the sixth straight for the Blue Devils, now tied for second in the ACC, and their third in four nights!

Trouble is, Duke has two more to go in its rough rumble through five games in 11 days' time. And the two left are no paties—defending champ North Carolina Saturday and first place North Carolina State next Tuesday, both on the road.

Just For Position
All the scrambling isn't for a title, just for position in the pairings for next month's tournament that will decide the champion and NCAA tournament entry. The first and fourth place finishers in regular season play are paired in one bracket, the second and third place clubs in the other.

NC State slipped out of a tie with idle North Carolina by getting past Virginia 61-58 last night while Duke joined the Tar Heels in second place. NC State is 7-

FIRST APPLE SPRAY LETTER OF 1958 OUT

Adam's County's apple growers were reminded today that spring will soon be here.

he reminder came in the form of "Apple Spray Information Letter No. 1," from County Agent Frank S. Zettle, sent to the growers to remind them to begin the series of sprays that will continue throughout the summer and into the fall in the never ending fight to keep under control the multitude of pests and diseases that annually threaten the county's apple crop.

Letter "No. 1" calls for application of the dormant spray to kill aphid eggs, and help control cankerworm, tent caterpillar and fruit tree leaf roller. The spray may be applied any time the temperature is above freezing, and those growers following the standard spray program and planning to use oil in the delayed dormant are informed they should apply the dormant DN spray "early so there will be at least

LEADER CALLS CABINET ON NEW "CRASH" PLANS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader summoned his cabinet into an extraordinary session today to draft a detailed plan for spending 200 million dollars on a "crash" program to fight rising unemployment in Pennsylvania.

The word is that the governor would make it clear to all department heads that he doesn't want his public works program treated routinely.

"The governor wants to explain that ordinary efforts won't be enough to carry out his plan to accelerating five years of proposed construction into a 46-week source.

"He wants a 'crash' plan and that is going to be what he will get."

The source, who asked not to be identified, said the governor would spell out details of his public works program in a series of announcements in the next few weeks.

Asks Cooperation
Leader last week proposed that federal, state and municipal officials join in the fight-unemployment plan on the basis that more than 435,000 persons are now out of work in Pennsylvania.

John L. Stinson, division engineer of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, announced yesterday that federal cooperation would be given to the highways aspects of the governor's public works plan. "We will act on highway plans just as soon as possible after the State Highways Department turns them over to us," he said.

House Speaker W. Stuart Helm (R-Armstrong) said the governor was attempting to make "a three-ring circus" out of what Helm described as a temporary business downturn.

He said state and local construction projects would be "a welcome aid" in relieving unemployment, adding:

"What we Republicans do resent is the governor's habit of dramatizing problems, such as unemployment, with deliberate political intent."

The governor put out a special statement last weekend asking bipartisan support for his unemployment plan, emphasizing that politics should be kept out of it.

URGE NEED FOR ROAD PLANNING

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Top-ranking state administration officials yesterday stressed the need for road planning and construction to keep abreast of the increase in population in rural areas.

Both Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman and Highways Secretary Lewis M. Stevens emphasized the potential benefits of expanded highway construction in the state at the 36th annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Assn. of Township Supervisors.

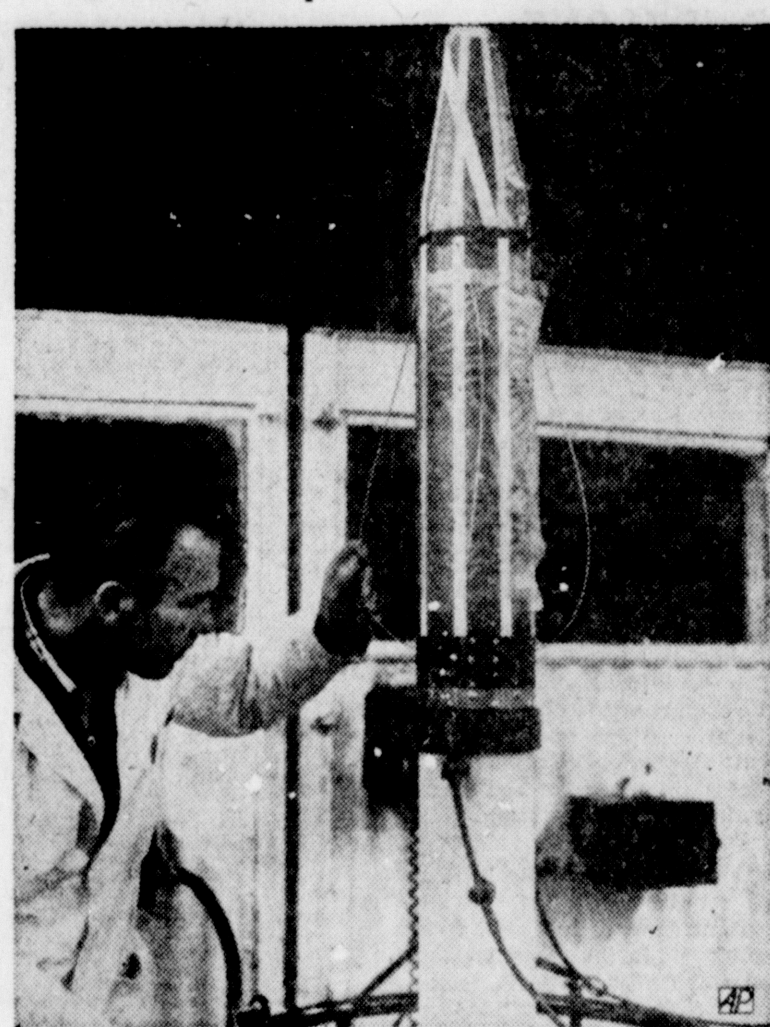

Stevens said the new federal road plan which will provide more than 1,500 miles of improved highways in the state calls for more active planning on the township level to "prevent the spread of urban sprawl which ends in strangulation."

Genevieve Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs, told the more three weeks between the dormant and the delayed dormant applications." County Agent Zettle, who prepared the letter in consultation with John U. Ruef, extension entomologist, noted in the letter that "in many areas there are more cankerworm and tent caterpillar eggs on the trees than in any recent year."

The growers have a choice of three mixtures for their sprays. For dilute sprays either 1 1/2 quarts of liquid DN, or two quarts of DN-289 or Elgetol-318 or 1 1/2 pounds of a 40 per cent DN powder may be used with one quart of miscible superior oil. For concentrate sprays the amount of oil remains the same, the amount of liquid DN, DN-289 or Elgetol-318 should be three quarts or, if the DN powder is used, three pounds is the quantity recommended.

Young Filipino Mother Is Found Not Guilty Of Charge She Killed Air Force Mate

FRANKLIN, Pa. (AP)—Timid Lydia Dean spent last night in her cell at the Venango County jail—free to leave but too grief-stricken to want to go immediately.

A jury of seven men and five women late yesterday acquitted the 22-year-old Filipino mother of the murder charge in the Dec. 7 rifle-shooting of her husband, Air Force T-Sgt. Ronald Dean. They deliberated 5 hours 17 minutes.

Defense Atty. Gerald McGill was asked why Mrs. Dean chose to stay in jail overnight.

"She was all broken up and still is over the death of her husband. She doesn't seem to realize he's dead. She didn't feel like going out in the world last night. And everyone has been so nice to her at the jail," he explained.

"Feels More Secure"
Deputy Sheriff Jim Mast said "she feels more secure in her cell than she does on the outside."

When the verdict was returned, Mrs. Dean sat just as she did throughout the trial: her head bowed, eyes downcast, tears streaming down her cheeks.

Mrs. Dean's mother, Mrs. Eugenia De Deen of Bangio City, Philippines, rushed up and embraced Lydia. Both sobbed deeply.

State Sen. George B. Stevenson received the association's first "citizen citation," established to honor an individual who has contributed to progress and economy in local government.

Report Plans To Close Some Schools

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Southern School News reported today that five Southern and border states are preparing so-called "Little Rock" bills to close their public schools if federal troops are sent to patrol them.

Such bills already have made some progress through the legislatures of Delaware and Virginia, the publication said, and have been proposed in Georgia, South Carolina and Mississippi.

Southern School News is published by the Southern Education Reporting Service, an agency formed by a group of Southern newspapermen a few years ago to report developments in school integration.

a living as a secretary. She had been practicing typing in jail. Mrs. Dean said through her tears:

"I feel very happy. I am thanking everybody in this place and all those people who helped my daughter."

Confirms Confidence
Estanislao Fernandez, a Filipino attorney who came here to help defend Mrs. Dean, said:

"The verdict confirmed once again the confidence of our people in the American way of justice."

Mrs. Dean's husband was shot to death while sleeping on a couch in the living room of his parents' home near Pleasantville just one week after he returned from 17 months duty in England.

Mrs. Dean testified he wanted a divorce to marry an English girl. She said he had spurned her attentions.

Dist. Atty. Robert T. Grannis charged the shooting was premeditated. However, he told the jury a death penalty was not warranted.

McGill contended the shooting was accidental—that the rifle went off while Mrs. Dean was carrying it into the living room to ask her husband to kill her.

Third Damaging Cold Wave Hits Florida; Heavy Loss

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
More freezing weather dealt new damaging blows today to Florida's major industries, including citrus and vegetable crops and the tourist business.

The current cold snap, the third of the winter season, hit the Sunshine State Monday night and for the second consecutive night temperatures tumbled to freezing and below in many areas.

Farmers expressed fear of widespread damage to citrus and vegetable crops. Earlier blasts of icy air destroyed about 37 million boxes of citrus and damaged other fruit. The flower industry reported nearly total destruction.

CHAPLAIN SENTENCED

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—Accused of pro-Western dealings with "reactionary church circles," Dr. Siegfried Schumutzler, chaplain of students at Leipzig, East Germany, has been sentenced to five years at hard labor by Communist government court, it was learned here.

MORE INTEREST IN RELIGION

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—A mood of curiosity and interest in religion characterizes today's American campus, says Yale University Chaplain Sidney Lovett. He said he sees in present-day students a "seedbed of new and finer religious insights and faith."

In the meantime, the stormy weather which pounded northeast sections and southern California appeared abating.

The U.S. Weather Bureau also held some hope for relief from the cold in Florida, forecasting temperatures would edge upward to near normal levels tonight.

But this morning in Miami, one of the nation's biggest winter resorts, it was near freezing again. The reading of 36 degrees was the same as yesterday's low mark, which was the lowest for the date in Florida's biggest city since 1917.

Snow Blocks Highways

The heavy snow and strong winds which hit sections of New York state, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and North Carolina diminished. But snow flurries persisted in parts of the north Atlantic states. The drifting snow blocked highways in many areas, forcing hundreds of schools to close.

The worst of the rain, snow and hail storm which pounded areas in southern California appeared ended. The cloudbursts in the Los Angeles area yesterday forced closing of 70 schools, washed out hillsides and flooded numerous streets and intersections. As much as a foot of fresh snow fell in mountain areas. Six deaths were attributed, at least in part, to the storm.

Weather Delays New Firings But Satellite Plans Booming

WASHINGTON (AP) — Strong winds put an apparent damper on any new U.S. satellite firing Tuesday as scientists came up with more details of Explorer I, the Army satellite circling the globe every 115 minutes.

There was no damper on planning, however.

Army scientists are reported to be proposing that an elaborate satellite, loaded with instruments and weighing up to 700 pounds, be fired before the end of the year to gather data for building a space station.

Vanguard Try Delayed
The Navy was said to be hoping to put a 20-inch satellite in orbit on schedule next month despite delays in preliminary tests.

The Navy is waiting to fire aloft its first six-inch sphere when weather permits.

A slim, 72-foot Vanguard rocket, vehicle for the Navy satellite, stood on a launching pad at the grounds throughout Monday. But high winds whipping eastward over the cape for the third straight day apparently frustrated any new firing attempts.

Army Makes Plans
Army scientists, buoyed by their success with Explorer I, plan to launch sometime between now and April a second Explorer.

Already they are planning to launch a third satellite, weighing 300 pounds and equipped with television for reconnaissance. That would be followed by the 700-pound Explorer IV as the forerunner of a space station.

It was learned that Dr. Werner von Braun, Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris and others instrumental in developing Explorer I have asked the Army for permission to start building the huge satellite.

Cameras And TV
They contend they could do the job with the basic Redstone rocket model which put Explorer I in orbit.

The big satellite could carry cameras and television recording equipment like those planned for Explorer III, plus elaborate electronic, and photographic equipment to provide data needed for building a space station.

Scientists announced new information on Explorer I, the 6½-foot, tubelike satellite now racing around the globe for the fourth day.

Reasons For Long Life
At Cambridge, Mass., Dr. Don A. Lautman, senior scientist at the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory, supported earlier estimates the Explorer may last for as long as 10 years.

He said the satellite may orbit "several years — and possibly as much as 10 years."

An observatory spokesman said Lautman based his opinion on the Explorer's orbiting at a higher altitude than the Soviet sputniks, that it presents a smaller cross section and that it spins nose first like a bullet. All these, he said, are factors reducing atmospheric drag that brought Sputnik I down after about three months.

FLORIDA IS HIT BY COLD AGAIN

The season's coldest weather gripped sections of the Southeast Tuesday as storm weather which hit Northeast areas appeared diminishing.

Below freezing temperatures extended southward through much of northern Florida with forecasts of frost or freezing weather in farm lands. Damaging freezes hit the farm areas earlier this year.

Cold air extended over most of the region east of the Mississippi River. Temperatures dropped to near zero in northern New England and parts of Wisconsin and Illinois. They dipped into the teens as far south as northern Tennessee and in northern sections of Alabama and Georgia.

Strong winds lashed Eastern sections Monday, piling huge snow drifts and blocking some highways. Drifts ranging from five to eight feet were reported in western Pennsylvania. No classes were to be held in eight school districts because of the heavy drifts in many rural areas.

Heavy snow also hit sections of Maryland, New York state and West Virginia.

Michigan State set a new home football attendance mark in 1957 when 358,563 fans attended six games.

HEAD OF SCHOOL FACES $200,000 THEFT CHARGE

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Faber R. Stengle, Collingdale superintendent of schools, faced a hearing on charges of embezzling $200,000 of the school district's funds.

Meanwhile, Delaware County detectives sought an attractive West Philadelphia woman for questioning in the case. She was identified by Chief County Detective Maurice Maitland as Margaret P. Barnes, 35, who has been missing from her home since the middle of January. Police said Collingdale residents told them the 67-year-old Stengle had been friendly with her for the past two years.

Find Their Pictures
Maitland said pictures of Stengle and the red-haired Miss Barnes, also known as "Bonnie," had been found side by side on a bureau in her apartment. By tracing her auto registration, investigators for Dist. Atty. Raymond B. Start determined she had lived in Lebanon, Pa., prior to coming to Philadelphia. Maitland stressed that police merely "wanted to talk to her."

Stengle was brought back to Philadelphia on Monday from St. Petersburg, Fla., where he was arrested last Friday. He was taken immediately to Start's office for questioning.

Covers 20 Years
Maitland said the amount involved, at first thought to have been $125,000, was now placed at $200,000 and that the alleged embezzlements had covered a period of 20 years.

Stengle, on his return, said: "I'm glad to be back. I'm glad to get it off my chest. It has been going on a long time."

Stengle said he had not seen Miss Barnes recently.

The warrant for Stengle's arrest charged forgery, false pretense and fraudulent conversion. Specifically, he was accused of forging a $60,000 bank loan to the school district and placing the money in the school tax account to cover a shortage.

STATE ASKS BIDS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Bids have been called for Feb. 27 on construction of a new northeastern Pennsylvania headquarters for the Highways Department.

Present headquarters for the region — District four — is a former schoolhouse in downtown Scranton.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—Is he jumping or is he being pushed?

That's the question being asked about the ambitious Harold Stassen — President Eisenhower's special assistant on disarmament — now reported on his way out.

Administration officials said during the weekend it is almost certain that Stassen will resign to run for the Republican nomination for governor in Pennsylvania.

Two newspapers went further. The New York Herald Tribune quoted a "high source" as saying Stassen is definitely leaving. The New York Times said Eisenhower has decided to accept Stassen's resignation and, if he doesn't get it, to ask for it.

No National Following
White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said he knew nothing about the stories. "So how can I comment?"

Stassen, three-time governor of Minnesota and three-time loser as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, has no broad national following.

In fact, he's almost a politician without a home. After losing out on his presidential hopes in 1948, he moved his residence from Minnesota to Pennsylvania.

He came to Washington with Eisenhower in 1953, first as director of mutual security and then as a specialist on disarmament, and has been here ever since.

In that time he has butted heads with two very important men, Vice President Nixon and Secretary of State Dulles. In this case two heads seem to have been better than one.

Faded In 1956

At least Stassen's light began to dim after his attempt in 1956 to keep Nixon from being renominated. He suggested that Gov. Christian A. Herter of Massachusetts would do better on the ticket with Eisenhower.

But Nixon got the nomination. And, even though Stassen then endorsed him glowingly, Stassen had ton. The new headquarters will be along O'Neill Highway, 1.3 miles northeast of Dunmore Corners, Lackawanna County.

hardly endeared himself to Nixon or his followers or to the party-line Republicans who didn't want their boat rocked in 1956.

But Stassen's specialty, disarmament, cut across Dulles' specialty, foreign policy. And for a long time—because Stassen worked in the White House directly under Eisenhower—he was out of Dulles' reach.

Dulles In Charge

Dulles remedied this last year by getting Stassen transferred to the State Department under his wing. And last summer Dulles treated him like a messenger boy.

Basic differences between the two men on how to handle the Soviet Union were reported as the root of their troubles. It went this way: that Stassen was willing to make more concessions than the secretary. It's a wonder they have stayed together this long.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A witness in the divorce hearing of Athalie Joan Irvine Penniman, 24, one of the nation's wealthiest women, said her husband was a "retired gentleman" at the age of 27.

Mrs. Penniman testified herself that Russell Sylvanus Penniman, 27, airplane broker, "refused to get a job when I asked him to, and he stayed in bed until noon every day."

Real Estate Office Is Looted Of $800

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 19-year-old girl was bound and a janitor slugged on Monday when three men held up a West Philadelphia real estate office and escaped with about $800 in cash.

Police said the office of Harry Manashil was entered by a shabbily dressed man who asked the clerk, Mildred Hale, about renting an apartment.

Another man entered and pulled a pistol. Miss Hale was forced into a back room where she was bound with stockings and gagged. The janitor, John Van Grillo, 62, was blackjacked as he entered the office.

A third man then entered and bound Van Grillo with black tape. They took the money and left.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—Sr. Edmund Hillary reported Tuesday that Dr. Vivian Fuchs' trans-antarctic expedition is "going like a bomb" in its drive to reach Scott base before winter sets in.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Self-legged Joe Cavoli has set a record for around the world in commercial airliners, 89 hours, 18 minutes, 37 seconds.

ARAB FRIENDS OF U. S. ASSAIL PACT MEETING

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Once staunch Arab friends of the United States have bitterly denounced the recent Baghdad Pact meeting in Ankara, Turkey, as a victory for communism.

The Beirut, Lebanon, newspaper An Nahas, published and edited by a Harvard-educated Arab noted for his pro-American leanings, suggests the meeting's results leave the Arabs no choice but to embrace the "positive neutrality" preached by President Nasser of Egypt.

Another strongly pro-Western and pro-American paper in Beirut, the French-language L'Orient, says that Arabs, viewing the results of the Ankara meeting, now must face the West with this choice: "Solve the Palestine question, or the Arabs will go Communist."

Embittered Arabs
The emphasis of the Baghdad Pact session on military means of stopping communism seems to have embittered even more than before those Arabs who considered themselves pro-Western and friends of the United States. Among these is Ghassan Tuani, the publisher of An Nahas. A Christian Arab, he has been vice president of the Lebanese Chamber of Deputies and a prospective foreign minister.

He supports the policy of the incumbent in the Foreign Ministry, pro-Western Charles Malik. Commenting on the Ankara meeting, his paper said editorially: "What has the Baghdad Pact done in Ankara? It established a combined military planning staff—as if communism has been penetrating and is continuing to penetrate the Middle East successfully by military operations, and as if the Soviet Union is planning to invade or even has an intention of invading the Middle East in the near future."

HONORED—Ballerina Alicia Markova holds dancing slipper in New York apartment after learning she had been honored by Queen Elizabeth II. Markova was made a Commander of the British Empire on New Year's Honors List.

Others Disappointed
Arabs—even those in Iraq aligned with the West in the Baghdad Pact—have indicated disappointment with the extent of economic aid envisioned in the communiqué issued at the end of the Ankara meeting. Underscoring this disappointment, Tuani said the conferees made themselves warmongers in Middle East eyes and failed to come up with a resolution which had even any publicity value to offset Communist propaganda in the region.

Friends of the West, Tuani wrote, hardly expected Secretary of State Dulles had flown 6,000 miles to the meeting "simply to tell them Washington has no solution" to their problems.

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Pennsylvania Highways Secretary Lewis M. Stevens advised township supervisors Tuesday that the huge federal interstate roadbuilding program means active planning is needed on their level "to prevent the spread of urban sprawl which ends in strangulation."

He noted, in an address prepared for the 36th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Assn. of Township Supervisors, that "the trend from urban living has started in full swing in many parts of the commonwealth."

TULSA, Okla. (P)—A specialist in child psychiatry says junior's reluctance to attend school doesn't necessarily mean he's lazy or stubborn—just may have "school phobia."

Dr. Paul C. Laybourne, Kansas City, Kan., said in an interview that such a child may have a serious emotional problem.

"And these children are really not afraid to go to school," he said. "They are afraid of leaving home."

"Some are afraid their parents will get a divorce. So they want to stay out of school and keep watch. Others are afraid their father will kill their mother, and that their mother will die while they are gone."

Or, he added, "some don't want to go because they've got a grumpy teacher. . . ."

ADULT COURSES FALLING OFF IN STATE SCHOOLS

HARRISBURG (P)—The number of adult education courses in Pennsylvania's public schools is dropping sharply.

The Department of Public Instruction today blamed the situation on the action of the 1957 Legislature in knocking out the appropriation for these courses.

Dr. Robert Mellman, director of curriculum extension in the department, said these courses would continue to drop off unless the 1959 Legislature restores the appropriation.

"We're losing programs throughout the state and I think we're going to lose more because many school districts had depended on state subsidies," he told a newsman.

He estimated between 600 and 700 school districts conducted some form of courses for adults last year. These included wood-working, sewing, tailoring and the like.

Report In December
They were asked to report in December on the status of the courses. Some 420 school districts responded to the questionnaire and reported 251 of them operated such courses in the 1956-57 school year and only 163 in the current school year.

Of the 163, he explained, 67 of them reported operating only minimum programs.

State aid for these courses ran about $600,000 a year. Most of the money went to teachers who were paid $2.50 an hour for teaching the courses at night and on weekends.

The last available figures showed 2,244 courses were taken by 86,176 in the 1955-56 school year. In 1953, the Legislature knocked out entirely state subsidies for adult recreation courses. They ranged from instruction in how to play bridge to tying flies. The lawmakers felt at that time that school districts desiring to give those courses should do so entirely at their own expense.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (P) — The summit conference is no closer than when President Eisenhower and Premier Bulganin began writing letters about it almost two months ago.

Bulganin has written three letters, each pretty much a repetition of the previous one. Eisenhower has written one, is expected to write another. At this rate it could go on for months.

Bulganin put this country on the defensive with his first letter. Then Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles put the Soviet Union on the defensive. The score so far: No hits, no runs, and it's too soon to detect the errors.

Wanted Propaganda
Bulganin's first letter was written at a moment calculated to get the most propaganda benefit: just when Eisenhower and Dulles were leaving last December for a Paris meeting with this country's NATO allies.

Some of the Allies were jumpy over Russia's revelation of its missile progress. They wanted peace. And if a summit conference offered a chance for it, they wanted that.

This put Eisenhower and Dulles on the spot. They had no great desire for another summit meeting. But they had to do something positive to offset the Soviet propaganda. That is, they couldn't say no, flatly. They had to do something which didn't slam the door.

Reject Some Red Lies

Eisenhower wrote to Bulganin in January, after Bulganin had sent him a second note. The President rejected some of the Russian's ideas, ignored others, and offered some of his own.

Then he laid down two conditions which put the Soviets in the position of having to make concessions or demonstrate good will and still gave Eisenhower and Dulles an out if, in the end, they didn't want a summit meeting: 1. Eisenhower said he didn't want a summit meeting that shoot off in all directions. He wanted preparations for it and this had to be done by American and Soviet ambassadors here and in Moscow and also by the foreign ministers.

Eisenhower didn't say either by the diplomats or foreign ministers. He said by both.

The Wanted Assurance

2. But even this wasn't enough. He wanted to feel sure — presumably after the preparations were all complete — that a summit meeting was still worthwhile.

Bulganin answered last Sunday. It was almost as if he hadn't read Eisenhower's letter. He just repeated what he said before, even items that Eisenhower had rejected.

Bulganin also rejected some of Eisenhower's ideas and ignored others. But above all he ruled out the idea of preparations made by the foreign ministers, with a thin-

Two In Alleged Fraud Decline To Testify

MEDIA, Pa. (P) — Two men connected with the Upper Darby $1,600,000 incinerator deal declined to testify yesterday before a special grand jury.

The witnesses were Edward Heller, former Upper Darby sanitation superintendent, and Max A. Rosenberg, West Philadelphia real estate dealer.

Both were called before the grand jury to reveal what they knew about the land deal for which Upper Darby Twp. was to pay $1,600,000 over 40 years for a 25 acre incinerator site.

After terms of the agreement were revealed, Heller was dismissed and the transaction was canceled.

Rosenberg negotiated the agreement with Upper Darby Twp. supervisors.

Sentences Two Men For Death Of Five

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (P) — Judge Vincent J. Dalton yesterday sentenced Aurelio Canio and Charles Martin, both of nearby Minersville, to a year in jail and fined them $2,000 each on charges connected with the deaths of five men in a mine accident.

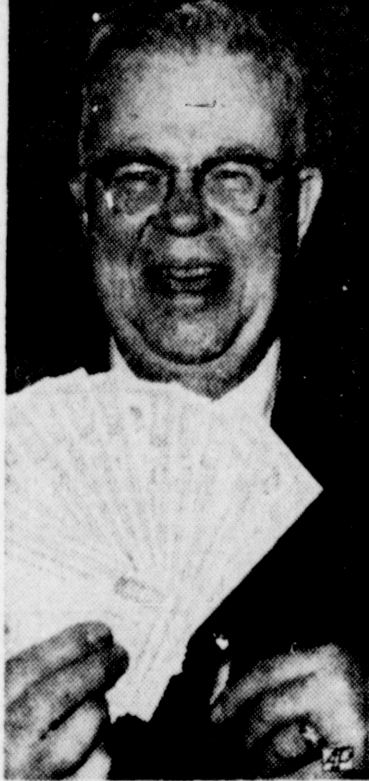

Five employees at a mine operated by Canio and Martin in Forestville, Schuylkill County were drowned March 27, 1952, when water poured into the mine from a broken wall.

Orvi Sigler, a 1948 South West Missouri State graduate, is in his fourth season as coach of Army's basketball team.

ly yelled slap at Dulles. Last night the White House fired back. Eisenhower himself didn't answer Bulganin directly. He can do that later in a letter. He let the White House put out a statement.

It said — but more politely — that the Soviets will have to go a lot further to convince Eisenhower a summit meeting could do any good. In effect, it rejected what Bulganin has proposed so far.

Since Bulganin doesn't seem to have much else to do besides writing letters, he'll probably write another.

SETS EXAMPLE — James F. Stiles Jr., retired Chicago businessman, displays $50 savings bonds in Washington after being sworn in as national director of U. S. savings bond program. He bought bonds for his grandchildren.

CRUSHED BY TRACTOR

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (P) — Richard Stine, 43, of nearby Alburtis, was killed on his farm yesterday when he was pinned under a tractor wheel. Stine, who had won a number of Lehigh Valley potato growing championships, was apparently trying to remove the wheel.
